

Press Note

1. A News has appeared in one of the newspapers that after the introduction of the Goods & Service Tax (GST) from 1st of July, the officers of Directorate General of GST Intelligence (DGGSTI) are planning for round the clock patrolling of highways and Rajkot unit of DGGSTI has been provided with four vehicles for the purpose. There is also report that staff strength has also been increased for this purpose.

2. It is categorically denied that any such round the clock patrolling either by DGGSTI or Central GST officers is being planned either at Rajkot or any other place.

3. It is reiterated that Central GST department is committed to smooth roll out and implementation of GST and all facilitations will be provided to GST dealers for smooth transition to the GST. The trade can contact any Seva Kendras which have been set up at different CGST offices for this purpose.
